

Community and Industry Leaders Join Coastal Housing Partnership Board of Directors

COASTAL HOUSING PARTNERSHIP recently welcomed several local leaders, including Clarice Clarke, Renee Grubb, Gavin Moores, Josh Rabinowitz, and Dan Singer, to the Coastal Housing Partnership Board of Directors. These board members will support the organization's mission of making home ownership more possible for local employees.

The new Board members join Karen Chackel, First American Title; Robert Silsbee, UCSB; Ron Lafrican, Cottage Health System; William Tumelty, Montecito Bank & Trust; and Elizabeth Winterhalter, Bank of the West on the Coastal Housing Partnership Board.

"In today's real estate market, Coastal Housing Partnership benefits and services have never been more important," shared Coastal Housing Partnership Board President Elizabeth Winterhalter who is looking forward to working with this dynamic group of new Board members. "The expertise and input from these new Board members will be invaluable in advancing our mission."

Clarice Clarke is a shareholder in Lee & Associates Central Coast, with offices in Santa Barbara, San Luis Obispo, and Santa Maria. Clarke has been a significant figure in the Santa Barbara real estate market since 1989 and has experience and expertise in both sales and leasing of almost every category of commercial real estate.

Renee Grubb is co-owner of Village Properties, a full-service real estate firm founded in 1996 with offices in Montecito, Santa Barbara, and Santa Ynez. Grubb has been active in real estate since 1983. She strongly believes in community involvement, actively contributing to the needs of local teachers and their classrooms through The Village Properties Teachers' Fund.

Gavin Moores is the President & CEO of Capital Pacific Development Group Inc. Moores has 20 years of residential and commercial construction management experience and oversees the acquisition, design, and development of multi-family and single family homes with Capital

Josh Rabinowitz

Dan Singer

Pacific Homes.

Josh Rabinowitz is a partner at the law firm of Fell, Marking, Abkin, Montgomery, Granet & Raney, LLP, in Santa Barbara. Rabinowitz's practice is focused on the representation of businesses and individuals in their real estate, business, tax, and related legal needs.

Dan Singer is the City Manager of the City of Goleta and has served in that position since 2005. Singer's municipal background includes extensive experience in redevelopment, grant management, finance, risk management, transportation, and community relations. He has also served on numerous non-profit and civic organization boards.

The Coastal Housing Partnership, a non-profit organization, was founded in 1987 by a group of South Coast employers for the purpose of making homeownership more achievable for local employees. Coastal Housing Partnership removes common obstacles to purchasing a home through its benefit programs and home buying education services. Over the past 23 years, Coastal Housing Partnership has helped over 10,000 local employees become homeowners. www.coastalhousing.org
